KOA LUMBER MILL.

A New Company Will Erect Saw-mill Near Volcano House.

A. Richley returned from Honolulu last week, having secured from the Bishop Estate a lease for five years of 4,500 acres of koa timber land in the vicinity of the Volcano House. A company has already been started with Mr. Richley at the head, with a capital of $25,000, which will shortly erect a mill about two miles back of the Volcano House and proceed to cut down the matured koa timber of marketable size and quality on the leased Bishop Estate lands.

According to Mr. Richley, in which opinion Forester Hosmer coincides, there are millions of feet of valuable koa lumber going to waste on the slopes of Mauna Kea. Some of the trees will measure seven feet in diameter, and it is Mr. Richley's purpose to cut these trees into square timbers for better handling for shipment. There is a steadily increasing demand for hard wood lumber on the coast and in the East, where it is proposed to market the large supply of koa now in sight. Some of the older trees are beginning to decay, and the trustees of Bishop Estate decided to enter into a timber contract to save loss and waste to the forests.

The only limit in cutting placed on Mr. Richley's company is that trees less than two feet cannot be removed unless fully matured. Matured trees, it is said, begin to rot, and it has been deemed advisable to clear the forest of all marketable koa.

Mr. Richley has entered into a contract to sell all the bark he can supply and he proposes to erect a complete plant on the spot, including a saw mill, planer, matcher, bark grinder and other machinery. When the active logging work begins, the new company will probably employ fifty or sixty men.

Must Pay $50 Fine.

By order of Judge C. P. Parsons, signed March 30th, former Sheriff L. A. Andrews is given until Thursday next to pay his fine of $50, imposed in the contempt proceedings on February 1st last, for failing to turn over to the custody of the Clerk certain monies in his hands, amounting to $160.60, as fines and costs in two criminal cases. The defendant was given an opportunity to be heard at that time in person and by counsel on a motion to remit the fine imposed. Carl S. Smith appeared for the Territory. On February 17th the Court allowed the defendant two weeks within which to file a brief in support of his motion. No brief having been filed during the time, or at all, and no sufficient reason appearing to the Court why the judgment should be reversed or vacated, the Court orders the payment of the said $50 within one week from March 30th. At that time, on failure to make payment, such further action will be taken as may be necessary.

New Are Lights.

Pedestrians and others who have had occasion to be on the down town streets after dark have noticed the improved arc lights now in use. Last week the Hilo Electric Light Co. Ltd. replaced all the old style globe lamps with a new light known as the "Warner" lamp. The new lamp casts no ugly long shadows, is more brilliant in illumination and requires to be recharged with carbon only once in seven or eight days. The former lights were a constant source of annoyance requiring to be refilled daily and were sputtering out at most irregular intervals.

Despair of Success.

A majority of the homesteaders composing the Kaihenui Settlement Association at 13 miles, Oahu, are preparing to plant sugar cane and have combined to plant a small acreage of seed cane for next season's planting. They have received such bad treatment by commission men at San Francisco that they see no profit in bananas for the grower. The excessive charges of the railroad, steamship lines and commission men combine to discourage the further growing of bananas in this region, it is alleged.

THE RICE TREATMENT.

House Committee Recommends Enactment of New Leprosy Law.

The special leprosy committee, of which Holstein is chairman, made a report to the House last week, recommending that the various bills touching on the segregation and treatment of lepers be tabled and that a substitute measure be introduced, covering the various subjects. An extract from the report is as follows:

"We are not going to discuss in this report whether leprosy is curable or incurable, but we believe that something should be done by this legislature to show the people that there is some hope, and while the law is not clear as to the manner and time of treatment of the disease, we have embodied in the substitute act to be introduced sections relating to the establishment of a hospital for the treatment of leprosy in its incipient stages so that the unfortunates may not be taken directly to Molokai whereby hope is abandoned entirely.

"We beg to report upon the resolution introduced by Rep. Lewis enquiring of the Board of Health whether a continuation should be allowed Dr. Milton Rice to treat the four leprosy patients now in his charge, the same has been answered by the President of the Board of Health in his verbal statement before the House that Dr. Rice shall continue the treatment for another year. In order to do so, we recommend that a sufficient appropriation should be made for such purpose."

The proposed bill provides for a hospital for persons afflicted with the first stages of leprosy, thus preventing incipient lepers from being sent directly to Molokai Settlement. The report of the committee was unanimously adopted and the bill passed first reading and will be printed.

Japanese Orphans.

Y. Igarashi, superintendent of the Nohi Orphan Asylum, located at Gifu, Japan, is making a visit to Hawaii and other parts of the United States in the interest of the institution under his care. The Nohi asylum grew out of the severe earthquake which killed many people and nearly wiped out the city of Gifu, Japan, where Igarashi resided. Animated by a Christian spirit, Igarashi gave the shelter of his home to the children whose parents perished in that catastrophe. The number of inmates is steadily growing as a consequence of the ravages of the Russia Japan war, and Mr. Igarashi comes to the United States as a friendly nation for financial assistance for continuing the good work.
